Joint Conference
July 9-13, 2017
Washington, D.C.
USA

REGISTER NOW for IACA's first conference in the United States scheduled for July 9-13, 2017, in Washington, DC! An exceptional conference is planned and it is one you will not want to miss! For this conference, IACA has partnered with the National Association for Court Management (NACM) to host a joint conference. The interest in attending this conference is extremely high and registration as well as the conference hotel are filling up fast so be sure to register soon if you plan to attend. To register, please visit IACA's website, www.iaca.ws, and be sure to use the IACA code, IACA2017, in the promo box to get the IACA member rate. IACA is pleased to include a one year membership with your conference registration.

Although the conference agenda can be found on the website, topic highlights of the 6 plenary* and over 48 breakout sessions include:

- ◆ Equal Access to Justice
- ◆ Court Governance and Leadership
- ◆ Technology and Its Deployment
- ◆ Promoting the Rule of Law
- ◆ Independence and Accountability of the Judiciary

*Spanish language interpretation will be available for the six plenary sessions.

Washington, D.C., USA
July 9-13, 2017

In addition, be sure to plan to attend Sunday's Welcome Reception followed by Dueling Pianos and the social event at the Library of Congress on Tuesday evening. Both events promise to be quite memorable!

For those of you who may require a VISA to attend, it is very important that you initiate the VISA process as soon as possible to avoid any delay in processing. Special instructions for VISA application are included on the website.

You do not want to miss this conference and this very special opportunity to network with other IACA members as well as with hundreds of court managers and administrators from the state courts who are members of NACM. This is a unique opportunity and one to take advantage of.

IACA President, Vladimir Frietas, and the rest of the IACA Board look forward to seeing you at this conference in Washington, DC.
